A Note Concerning Professor A's Last Lecture

My friend the good Professor Amphibrach, a sonneteer who preaches counterpoint to cure a case of chronic metric hack, attacked a coed in a sleazy joint where minors congregate in droves to drink -- and tore the blouse right off her flawless back and sashayed lewdly through the mob to wink at other tarts and give their cheeks a smack.

He danced a lively jig and beckoned Yeats to swoop down from his perch on Heaven's bough and sing the dissolution of the flesh, the grand ascension of the soul, and how the blood which warms us now and keeps us fresh will someday come to curse the flow of fate.
