CHARLESTON, IL.--Mary Mohr, a 1984 graduate of Lake Forest High School, has been named an overall co-chair for Eastern Illinois University's Students Against Multiple Sclerosis (SAMS) organization. The senior consumer affairs major has been active in the organization's fight against disease for over two years.

MOHR NAMED CO-CHAIR

Last year, students from EIU raised approximately $4500 for SAMS. "This year," said Mohr, "we've set a goal of $5000 and we're pretty optimistic that we can reach it."

In the past few months, a balloon launch, a lip sync competition and the sale of novelty items have all helped bring in money. Future fundraising plans include a party and a haircut-a-thon.

"I just hope that we can raise as much money as we can to find a cure for multiple sclerosis," added Mohr.
