Course Focus

There are as many ways to view a text as there are readers, and each reader brings to a text his or her own perceptions, prejudices, and experiences. When reading and writing about literature are approached from a variety of perspectives, exciting things happen. Texts come alive artistically, historically, and politically in fascinating ways, and we realize that readers co-create meaning with writers. A text is a two-way street. English majors are encouraged to learn to view literature from a variety of critical stances that have evolved into the field called literary theory. In this course, we will read a selection of poetry, drama, and prose from several theoretical standpoints and discuss literary history, as well as the historical development of literary criticism.

Learning Objectives

--Students will engage in diverse critical perspectives as we discuss the texts.

--Students will perform research tasks based on primary and secondary source readings, and they will make use of traditional library resources as well as library databases and online resources of scholarly repute.

--Students will synthesize, critique, and interpret their findings in their writing assignments.

--Students will craft cogent, defensible, and well-researched theses for their projects.

--Students will discuss their findings in informal, small group settings and with the whole class.

Policies and General Information

--The English Department statement on plagiarism stipulates that any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author and representation of them as one's original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)--has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the assigned essay and for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office. See <http://www.eiu.edu/judicial/studentconductcode.php> for further information.

--Papers and exams: Papers are due in Dropbox on the dates and at the times noted. See Dropbox in D2L. Late papers will be reduced a letter grade for each class day that they are late without a university approved excuse (properly verified absences due to illness, emergency, or participation in an official University activity). If you miss an exam, and you have a university-approved excuse, you may make up that exam. You will have no more than one week to do so, and the make-up exam may be different from the one given during class.

--If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) or stop by Ninth Street Hall, Room 2006, as soon as possible to make an appointment.

--If you require general help with your studies, please make an appointment with The Student Success Center. Students who are having difficulty achieving their academic goals are encouraged to contact the Student Success Center (<http://www.eiu.edu/~success>) for assistance with time management, text taking, note taking, avoiding procrastination, setting goals, and other skills to support academic achievement. The Student Success Center provides individualized consultations. To make an appointment, call 217-581-6696, or go to 9th Street Hall, Room 1302.

--Please make use of EIU's Writing Center, located at 3110 Coleman Hall, this semester. The consultants there can help you with brainstorming, organizing, developing support for, and documenting your papers. One caveat: the Writing Center is not a proofreading or editing service. It is a place where you can learn how to become a more thoughtful, independent, and rhetorically effective writer. To schedule an appointment, drop by (3110 Coleman Hall) or call 581-5929.

--Be prepared for class. You'll get more out of class discussions if you are participating in them, and I'll notice if you do not seem prepared to participate.

--If you begin missing multiple classes or assignments without communicating with me, I will make use of the EIU Early Alert System to help you get back on track. Your RA (if you live on campus) or someone from the Academic Success Center will try to contact you to offer help. Use of this system does not mean that you are "in trouble"; it is a means to help you avoid trouble.

--Conferences: You may make an appointment to meet with me to discuss papers during my office hours or at other times as may be arranged.

--The Writing Center: Consider making use of EIU's Writing Center, located at 3110 Coleman Hall, this semester. The consultants there can help you with brainstorming, organizing, developing support for, and documenting your papers. One caveat: the Writing Center is not a proofreading or editing service. It is a place where you can learn how to become a more thoughtful, independent, and rhetorically effective writer. To schedule an appointment, drop by (3110 Coleman Hall) or call 581-5929.

Requirements

Three exams (20% each of final grade; thus, 60% total)

Three research essays (10% each of final grade; thus 30% total)

Final presentation (10% of final grade)

Grading: Some assignments may be graded with a check mark system, which will be weighted as follows:  $\sqrt{+}$  = A,  $\sqrt{\phantom{+}}$  = B,  $\sqrt{-}$  = C. Anything lower will be an F.

Any letter grades will be assessed numerically as follows: A+ = 98, A = 95, A- = 92; B+ = 88, B = 85, B- = 82; C+ = 78, C = 75, C- = 72; and so on.

Exams: The exams will cover the units of study; however, there will be interplay between these units in our discussions and in the test questions, and the final exam will have some comprehensive elements.

Research Essays: The essays (5-7 pages long each) will be researched writings on topics generated from the texts that we read during the course of the semester. You will use MLA Parenthetical Style for documentation. There will be three essay prompts, one per unit.

Final Presentation: The presentations will be crafted from the research for one of your essays. It will be 5-7 minutes long. Its purpose is to introduce specialized information that you have focused on during your own independent study.
