For Immediate Release:

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY DANCERS TO PERFORM FREE RECITAL

CHARLESTON -- The Eastern Illinois University Dancers will perform their annual spring recital -- "Rhythm In Motion" -- on both March 5 and 6.

The general public is invited to attend the free event, scheduled to begin at 7:30 nightly in McAfee Gymnasium on Eastern's campus.

The EIU Dancers, consisting of more than 20 men and women students, will perform traditional forms of modern, tap, ballet and jazz, as well as hip hop, African and various solos and duets. Dances will performed to the tunes of such artists as Prince, Michael Jackson, Rammstein and Lauryn Hill.

The group is a university-recognized organization, sponsored by Eastern's Department of Physical Education and under the direction of faculty members Nancy Nordtvedt and Jeanna McFarland.
