Eng 1092G is a writing-centered course. You can submit an essay written for this course to your electronic writing portfolio. If you wish to submit an essay to the EWP, you should do so before the last week of classes. I know that education is as important to you as it is to me. I believe that there is no end to learning and that nobody knows everything. I will work with you to help you succeed.

This section of Eng 1092G is designed to help you understand, appreciate, enjoy, and write about literature. Through reading, writing, and talking about a variety of texts, you will learn to develop and sharpen your analytical, interpretive and critical skills. You will also gain insight into how fiction writers, poets, and playwrights perceive the world/society and how their perceptions/world views can be related to your own experiences/world views.

Prerequisite: According to the English Department's guidelines, "All students enrolled in Eng 1002G [or Eng 1092G] should have passed Eng 1001G [or Eng 1091G] or must have fulfilled the requirement through transfer credit or through the CLEP proficiency examination."

Texts: Abcarian, Richard, and Marvin Klotz, eds. Literature: The Human Experience (9th ed.)
This text is referred to as "Anthology" on the syllabus.
Chopin, Kate. The Awakening (Norton, 2nd ed., 1994)
Griffith, Kelley. Writing Essays About Literature (7th ed.)
Hacker, Diana. A Pocket Style Manual (5th ed. with 2009 MLA update)
Hurston, Zora Neale. Their Eyes Were Watching God

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION: Regular attendance and active participation are required. According to the 2009-2010 online catalog,

Students are expected to attend class meetings as scheduled. When an absence does occur, the student is responsible for the material covered during the absence (emphasis added). When possible, the student should notify the instructor in advance of an anticipated absence.

Instructors will grant make-up privileges (when make-up is possible) to students for properly verified absences due to illness, emergency, or participation in an official University activity; and such absences will not militate against students in classes in which attendance is used directly in determining final grades (emphasis added). It is the student's responsibility to initiate plans for make-up work and to complete it promptly (emphasis added). If in the instructor's judgment the duration or number of absences renders make-up unfeasible, the instructor may contact the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Department Chairperson to determine an appropriate action.

In addition, the 2009-2010 online catalog includes the following sentences regarding absences: "If a student establishes a record or pattern of absences of concern to the instructor, the instructor may ask of the Vice President for Student Affairs that inquiries concerning the absences be made. The Vice President for Student Affairs also serves as the University contact person when catastrophic events result in extended student absences."

Unless you have received my consent prior to your absence and you are able to provide me with documented evidence showing that your absence is legitimate and excusable, you are not allowed to make up tests, graded in-class exercises and/or quizzes.

Every excused absence (i.e., an official university activity, emergency or medical illness) must be supported by written evidence from a proper authority, which you will present to me upon your return to class.

If you are to take part in an official university activity, you must also give me in advance a letter explaining the purpose and date of your anticipated absence.

If you have an emergency or if you are sick, you or someone you know must e-mail me at dsuksang@eiu.edu or call me at home (348-0479) or at work (581-6986) BEFORE class begins on the day of your absence. If you cannot reach me, you can leave a message on voice mail (at work) BEFORE class begins on the day of your absence. I will check my e-mail and voice mail before going to class. You must also show me documented evidence supporting your absence upon your return.

A phone notification or an in-class personal notification is appreciated, but it is not considered an automatically legitimate excuse. Remember it is your responsibility to contact either your classmate(s) or me to find out what you have missed and/or if there have been any changes made on the original syllabus during your absence.

*If you have more than 4 unexcused absences, 5 points per unexcused absence will be deducted from your total score at the end of the semester before I convert it to a percentage.

*Don't forget to sign your name on the attendance sheet that I will pass around at the beginning of each class period.

It is very important that you participate actively and seriously in all class activities. Remember that nobody knows everything and that everybody has something valuable to offer. We can have fun learning from each other and growing together as a group.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. You are required to read all assigned selections before each class and to participate in all class activities. Whenever possible, you will work in small groups on the assigned reading selection(s). Each group will spend the first 15 minutes discussing the assigned selection. After the discussion each group will share with the class its members' comments and observations about the assigned selection.

2. Reading responses (25 X 4 =100): This requirement is designed to help you keep up with and think analytically and critically about your reading assignments before class discussion. You are required to write four (4) substantial responses to reading assignments as indicated on the syllabus. You may do TWO (2) extra responses to replace the ones that receive low grades. Do not wait until the last minute to write these four responses. You will not be allowed to respond to other selections after the last response indicated on the syllabus. It is your responsibility to get your work done on time.

Each response MUST be at least 750 words long. It can, and should, be longer. Responses that are shorter than the minimum required length (750 words) will not receive many points. I will collect all the responses at the beginning of each class period before class discussion. For example, if you choose to respond to the reading selections assigned for Monday, you must be ready to turn in your response at the beginning of that Monday class. You are to respond to all the reading selections assigned for each day unless I indicate otherwise. If you respond to only one of the two assigned selections, you can get only up to half of the total score. I will not be responsible for responses placed in my mailbox. They must be given to me personally. You can also turn them in to me personally ahead of time. I will accept late responses only if your absences are caused by "illness, emergency, or participation in an official University activity"; however, you must present documented evidence upon turning in your responses.

Computer/Printer Problems: If your printer does not work, you must e-mail your response to me before class, not after class. I will not accept your response sent via e-mail after class. If your computer does not work, you can turn in a handwritten response. You cannot use a broken computer or printer as an excuse for not turning in your response on time.

*You will not be allowed to turn in a response after Response#17. If you wait too long, it may be too late.

Evaluation: Each response is worth 25 points. Your grade is based on the quantity and quality of your response. If your response meets the minimum length requirement (750 words) but is generalized or unengaged, you will receive approximately 15-17.5 points (60-70 %). If your response is below 750 words, you will get less than 60%. You will receive more than 70 % if your response not only meets or exceeds the required length but also shows that you have thought carefully about the reading assignment and have responded to it energetically, specifically, imaginatively, critically, and independently. A plot summary will receive approximately 15 points (60%). Plot details are used to support your points. I am more interested in reading your ideas/speculations and critical/analytical comments that are supported by textual details. Questions at the end of each short story or poem should help guide your critical/analytical response.

3. There will be reading quizzes and a quiz on literary terms, which will not be announced ahead of time (80 points). They will be given before class discussion. You will have up to 20 minutes to work on a quiz. If you arrive late, you will have less than 20 minutes to complete a quiz. If you come to class after a quiz has been given, you are not allowed to make up that quiz. These reading quizzes are intended to help you keep up with the reading assignments. If your absence is an unexcused absence, you will not be allowed to make up a quiz. You will be allowed to make up a quiz if you have documented evidence showing that your absence is legitimate and excusable.

4. You will write three (3) formal papers (100 points per paper). Each paper is at least 1,250 words long (5 double-spaced, typed pages--250 words per page). There will be an in-class peer-response session and a mandatory conference for each paper.

5. You are required to lead class discussion on a reading selection (a short story, a portion of a novel, or a poem) listed on the syllabus (20 points). You will not receive many points for this activity if you are obviously not well prepared. You must have at least 8 thoughtful questions that can initiate critical responses, not the simple yes-no responses, from your classmates. Your questions must be different from those listed at the end of each story or poem. You can have more than 8 questions. You must turn in your list of questions to me before class discussion. You should make two copies of the list. If you do not turn in a list of questions before class discussion, 5 points will be deducted from the 20 points allocated for this assignment. You are not to summarize the text for the class. You have to assume that your classmates have read the text.

If you are absent on the day when you are to lead class discussion without my permission or a legitimate excuse supported by documented evidence, you will receive zero for this activity.

If you have an emergency or if you are sick on the day you are to lead class discussion, you must let me know by calling me at home (348-0479) or at work (581-6986) or e-mailing me before your scheduled class discussion. If you cannot reach me by phone, you can leave a message on my voice mail at work (581-6986). I will check my e-mail and voice mail before going to class. You will need to choose a different text and reschedule your class discussion.

If you do not contact me about your emergency or sickness before your originally scheduled class discussion, 5 points will be deducted from the 20 points allocated for this assignment. You must also give me documented evidence from a proper authority to support your absence upon your return.

If you change your mind about the text that you have chosen, you must also let me know before your originally scheduled class discussion, not after. If you fail to notify me before your scheduled class discussion, 5 points will be deducted from the 20 points allocated for this assignment.

6. There will be a mid-term exam (100 points) and a final exam (100 points).

*You must save all of your reading responses, papers (including drafts), in-class exercises and quizzes.

PAPERS: All major papers must be typed and double-spaced. They will be graded in accordance with the "Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU's English Department," which will be given to you.

You are required to follow the steps described below for each paper:

1. Write your first draft at home. Your first draft should contain 4 main points, but it does not have to be polished or fully developed. It should be typed and double-spaced.
2. Meet with me in conference to discuss your first draft.

Conferences on papers before an in-class peer-response session are mandatory. Your first draft that you bring with you when you come to see me in conference must be somewhat complete, though it does not have to be polished. It should contain 4 main points. Your first draft should also be at least 3 pages long. I will help guide you through each of your writing assignments by discussing your first draft with you in conference. Your outline will not be counted as your first draft. If you want to discuss your topic or your outline with me before drafting your paper, you can make an extra appointment before the mandatory conference week.

If you forget to come to your conference, you must reschedule it before each in-class peer-response session. If you don't reschedule it, I will deduct 10 points from whatever you get on your paper. If you miss the newly scheduled conference, I will also deduct 10 points from whatever you get on your paper. If you miss a conference, you must show me your first draft of the paper that contains 4 main points and that is at least three (3) pages long before an in-class peer-response session begins. If you don't have the first draft to show me, I will deduct another 10 points from whatever you get on your paper. If you also miss an in-class peer-response session, 10 points will be deducted from whatever you get on your paper. In addition, you have to show me your first draft and your revised (second) draft.

3. After our conference, you are required to revise your draft and bring your revised draft (second draft), which is typed and double-spaced, to a peer-response session in class. I will initial your second draft before the beginning of each peer-response session. If you miss an in-class peer-response session, 10 points will be deducted from whatever you get on the paper. If you have a legitimate excuse, you must show me documented evidence.

4. After each peer-response session, you need to revise your essay at least one more time. You can revise it more than once, however.

To prevent any mishaps, you should make copies of your papers. Save all notes and drafts.

When you turn in your paper, you must include the following items in the order listed below:

1. A cover sheet, which includes your name, the course number, the course section, the instructor's name, the due date of the assignment, and the title of your essay

2. Your first draft (required)

3. A response from your Eng 1092:097 classmate (required)

I will give a copy of the response sheet on the day of the peer-response session. If you miss an in-class peer-response session, 10 points will be deducted from whatever you get on the paper. If you have a legitimate excuse, you must show me documented evidence.)

4. Your revised draft (second draft--required) that you bring to the peer-response session

5. Other drafts (if any)

6. Your "final" copy (required)

Your outline is not considered one of the required drafts. If you do not turn in all the required drafts, I will deduct 10 points from whatever you get on your paper. Your second draft must not be an exact copy of the first draft or the "final" version. If you turn in only one draft or two copies of the same draft (=1 draft) and your "final" version of the paper, I will deduct 10 points from whatever you get on the paper.)

*Please type the word "FINAL" on the first page of your "final" copy and number each page, except the first page. Please also type your name, section number, the date and the name of the assignment on the top of the first page.

LATE PAPERS : Each paper must be turned in on time unless you have received my permission to turn it in later than the due date. I will accept late papers also in cases of severe illness, official university activity and other urgent reasons upon presentation of a valid excuse issued by a proper authority.

REVISION: You are allowed to revise both Paper #1 and Paper #2. You must turn in the original essay along with your revision before the due date or on the due date in class or by 1:30 p.m. in my office. You are also required to highlight or mark the changes that you have made on your revised essay. You will receive up to 10 additional points on your revised version. I will not accept your revision after 1:30 p.m. on the due date.

PLAGIARISM: Plagiarism, intentional or unintentional, is a serious academic offense and will not be tolerated. If I discover plagiarism in any of your reading responses or formal papers, you will receive an F for the course. I will also report such an act to the Judicial Affairs Office. Therefore, please don't do it! Also, please read the "Academic Integrity Standards at Eastern" handout.

To help you avoid plagiarism, I will talk to you about how to use outside sources properly. I am also ready to help you whenever you have any questions about how to deal with your sources. It is perfectly legitimate for you to use other people's words, phrases or ideas, but you MUST acknowledge your sources by putting quotation marks around words or phrases that belong to another author and properly documenting them. Your quotes, summaries and paraphrases must also be properly introduced and documented.

The Department's statement on plagiarism: "Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism--'The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work' (Random House Dictionary of the English Language) --has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignments of a grade of F for the assigned essay and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office. Respect for the work of others [encompasses] all formats, including print, electronic, and oral sources."

GRADING POLICY:

Unannounced quizzes	80	points
