"EIU HIGHLIGHTS"

February 16 - February 22

- 16 Concert. The EIU Symphonic Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Joseph Manfredo, will perform at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Leo J. Dvorak concert hall. The program, "Masterworks for Winds and Percussion," will consist of Mozart's Serenade in C Minor, Hindemith's Symphony in B-flat, the Petite Symphonie by Gounod and John Philip Sousa's Hands Across the Sea March. The concert will feature Bernard Borah, assistant professor of bassoon and theory at EIU. He will perform the third movement of the Carl Maria von Weber Concerto for Bassoon, as well as perform with the Sinfonia da Camera of Champaign-Urbana. The concert is free and open to the public. For more information, call Eastern's music department at 581-3010.
- 17 Presentation. Emily Hill, a postdoctoral fellow at Stanford, will speak on the results of her two-year research in the cultural, political and historical context of economic development in Vietnam and China. The presentation will be at 4 p.m. Monday in the Lumpkin Hall Auditorium, room 17. Hill will also answer questions about her personal experiences as a foreign woman scholar living in Asia. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, call John McElligott at 581-3039.
- 18 Presentation. Rosalyn Gresens from Eastern's Career Services will present "Job Search Strategies: How to Include the Internet" at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Martin Luther King Jr. University Union Effingham Room. The presentation is free and open to the public. For more information, call Career Services at 581-2412.

- 19 Seminar. Karola Alford, director of Eastern's Counseling Center, will present "Adult Children of Alcoholics (A.C.O.A.)" at noon Wednesday in the Martin Luther King Jr. University Union Kansas Room. She will teach how to cope and understand how alcoholic addiction can affect all of us. The seminar is free and open to the public. For more information, call 581-3413.
- 20 Play. The Eastern Illinois University Theatre will present "What Rough Beast Slouches" at 8 p.m. Thursday on the mainstage of the Leo J. Dvorak Fine Arts Building. The play will also be presented on Feb 21-22, 26-28, March 1 at 8 p.m. and on Sunday, March 2 at 2 p.m. Tickets are $8 for adults, $6 for senior citizens and children and $3.50 for EIU students with ID. For more information call 581-3110.

Artist's Lecture. Mernet Larsen will present a slide lecture on her recent abstract paintings in conjunction with the exhibition Order/Disorder: Perceptions of Reality at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Tarble Arts Center. Larsen's work deals with dualisms, multiplicities and tensions utilized by the artist to seek a deeper visual truth in representing the disorder of reality she perceives. Larsen teaches painting at the University of South Florida, Tampa, where she has been on the faculty since 1967, and is a recipient of a Southern Arts Federation/National Endowment for the Arts fellowship grant. The lecture is free and open to the public. For more information, call the Tarble Arts Center at 581-2787.
