CHARLESTON -- Colette Guerdet, daughter of Charles and Nancy Guerdet of Taylor Ridge, served as a student marshal at Eastern Illinois University's recent fall commencement ceremony.

Members of Eastern's Honors Programs, the marshals become the official ushers for the various college occasions, particularly for the commencement exercises. They wear white academic costumes and carry batons decorated in the University's colors of blue and gray.

A 1994 graduate of Rockridge High School in Edgington, Guerdet is a freshman history major.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.
