FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LONG HONORED

CHARLESTON, IL--Sandra Long, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rieger, live in Culver City, California, has received the Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship at Eastern Illinois University.

The purpose of the award is to provide assistance to undergraduate students enrolled in academic programs administered through the School of Home Economics, who have shown creativity, achievement and leadership in their past academic performance.

Long, a 1969 graduate of Whitmer High School, is a senior at Eastern Illinois University majoring in Home Economics and Family Services.

She is also involved in Kappa Omicron Phi, which she has served as Recording Secretary, and is a member of the Organization of Adult Students In School (OASIS).

In addition, she is the VFW Women's Auxiliary #1592-Hospital Chairman and a Hospice Volunteer.
