FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Patti Wolf, the 17-year old pianist from St. Louis who won the first Music of the Americas competition at Eastern Illinois University in 1982, will play a benefit concert at Eastern's Tarble Arts Center on Wednesday, April 20 at 8 p.m.

Proceeds will go toward supporting the second Music of the Americas competition for high school pianists scheduled for Oct. 23 at Eastern.

Purpose of the contest is "to identify the outstanding pianists in midwestern states and to encourage the performance of recent piano compositions by composers of the U.S., Canada and Latin America."

Miss Wolf is also the winner of both state and regional Music Teachers' National Association high school auditions. Solo appearances with orchestra include eight concerts in the youth series of the St. Louis Symphony, the St. Louis Youth Orchestra, and the Missouri Symphony in Columbia.

Tickets for Miss Wolf's concert are $3 for adults and $1 for students and senior citizens. Ticket requests should be addressed to Dr. David Appleby, Music Department, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill. 61920.
