FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BANNING RECOGNIZED

CHARLESTON, IL--Arnold Banning of Beecher City is the recipient of the Career Occupations Student Excellence Award at Eastern Illinois University.

Banning, who was recognized at Eastern's School of Adult and Continuing Education student recognition ceremony held recently, received the award based on his excellence in academics, leadership in learning settings, and a desire to continuously learn and grow.

He received a cash award and a plaque made available by career occupations alumni. A 1971 graduate of Assumption Junior-Senior High School, Banning was a senior enrolled in Eastern's career occupations program in the spring semester. He and his wife, Deborah, have two children, Christopher and Angela.

Banning is the son of Leo and Penney Banning of Shelbyville.
