FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Mike Hoehne, of Hillside, has been named Administrative Vice President of the Illinois Residence Hall Association (IRHA).

Hoehne, a junior computer management major at Eastern Illinois University, will serve as the chief financial officer of the statewide organization and as second in charge to the president.

Hoehne was selected at the IRHA Conference held at Eastern and will hold the office until next year's conference when new officers will be selected. He was chosen for the position by a selection committee comprised of IRHA members from throughout the state of Illinois.

Hoehne, the son of Verne and Mary Hoehne, also serves as Vice President of the Eastern Illinois University Residence Hall Association.
