Absent: Judith Lyles (CSD); Sue Taylor, Student Representative (EDA); Jeanne Walters, Charleston Public Schools; Nikki Woolverton, Student Representative (HST)

Guests: Phoebe Church, William Higelmire, Gary Quast, Rick Roberts, William Smith, and John Weber

Peggy Holmes-Layman called the meeting to order.

The minutes from the March 27, 2000, meeting were approved.

Rick Roberts presented a proposal from the Department of Counseling and Student Development to change the prerequisites for CSD 5630 and CSD 6900. Following discussion, this proposal was approved.

Gary Quast presented a new course proposal from the Department of Student Teaching for STG 5131/5132/5133 Topics in Education. Following discussion, this proposal was approved to become effective Summer 2001.

Julie Dietz presented a course revision from the Department of Health Studies for EIU 4002G Controversial Issues in Health. This course is being revised to meet the new general education requirements and to change the course title. Following discussion, this proposal was approved as amended to become effective Fall 2001.

Phoebe Church presented a course revision from the Department of Physical Education for PED 2900G International Expression for Dance. This course is being revised to meet the new general education requirements. Following discussion, this proposal was approved to become effective Spring 2001.

Dr. Church also presented a new course proposal for EIU 41XXG Physical Activity and Mental Awareness. Following discussion, this proposal was approved as amended to become effective Fall 2001.

Don Smith presented a course revision from the Department of Secondary Education and Foundations for EIU 4007G. The proposal is to delete the current course and replace it with a course entitled The Idea of a University: Yesterday and Today. Following discussion, this proposal was approved as amended to become effective Fall 2002.

William Higelmire presented a proposal from the Department of Leisure Studies to change their department name to the Department of Recreation Administration. Following discussion, this proposal was approved to become effective Fall 2000.

John Weber presented a proposal from the Department of Leisure Studies to revise the computer course requirement for the Recreation Administration majors. Instead of allowing these students to take AIS 1900, BUS 1950, or LST 3910, the proposal is to require these students to take LST 3910. Following discussion, this proposal was approved to become effective Fall 2000.

Mr. Weber also presented a new course proposal for LST 3000G Personal and Social Impact of Leisure. Following discussion, this proposal was approved to become effective Fall 2001.

Dr. Higelmire presented a proposal to revise LST 1780 Introduction to Leisure Service Agencies. The revised course would be worth 3 semester hours instead of the current 2 semester hours. Following discussion, this proposal was approved as amended to become effective Fall 2001.

Dr. Higelmire then presented a proposal to revise LST 2290 Programming for Leisure Agencies. The revised course would be worth 3 semester hours instead of the current 2 semester hours. Following discussion, this proposal was approved as amended to become effective Fall 2001.

William Smith presented a proposal from the Department of Leisure Studies to revise EIU 4021G Leisure Time: The American Perspective. This course is being revised to meet the new general education requirements and to change the course number to EIU 4121G. Following discussion, this proposal was approved as amended to become effective Spring 2001.

The election of officers for next year was postponed until the first meeting of Fall 2000.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:37 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Bonnie Wilson

Dr. Allen Lanham, Dean
