RIVES ANNOUNCES EXPO CANCELLATION

CHARLESTON, IL--Sandy Rives has announced the cancellation of the 1992 Women's Expo and Health Fair and Teen Expo previously scheduled for March 7 on the Eastern Illinois University campus.

"The event has been cancelled," she said, "because of lack of financial support to assure that it would continue as a quality event. The business recession and state spending cut-backs required this decision. The question was whether to do it well or not to do it all. This program, over the years, has provided an important service to women of all ages."
