Interactive animations written as Applets may be particularly useful for delivering demonstrations and exercises over the Web. The colloquium is free and open to the public. For more information, call Donald Pakey at 581-6338.

University Theatre

The University Theatre will present "What Rough Beast Slouches" by Brad Fairchild at 8 p.m. Feb. 26 through March 1 and at 2 p.m. on March 2. The play will be performed on the Mainstage of the Quincy Doudna Fine Arts Center. Tickets are $8 for adults, $6 for senior citizens and children and $3.50 for students with ID. For tickets or more information, call the University Theatre Ticket Office at 581-3110.

Tarble Arts Center

The Tarble Arts Center will hold an All-Student Show from March 1 through March 29. The exhibition is a juried competition in all media open to undergraduates at Eastern. There will be an opening reception and awards presentation at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 2, at the Tarble Arts Center. For more information, call 581-2787.

The last day to see Order/Disorder: Perceptions of Reality at the Tarble Arts Center is Sunday, Feb. 23. The exhibition is composed of three solo exhibits of artists who deal with the complexities of perceived realities in different ways and media. Pamela Bannos' work is titled Mixed Media Photographs. She holds a lectureship in art in the Department of Art Theory and Practice at Northwestern University, Evanston. Mernet Larsen's work is titled Mixed Media Paintings. She teaches painting at the University of South Florida, Tampa, where she has been on the faculty since 1967, and is a recipient of a Southern Arts Federation/National Endowment for the Arts fellowship grant. John Siblik's work is titled Recent Paintings/Installation. He is an instructor of art at John A. Logan College, Carterville, and at McKendree College, Lebanon. His work has been recognized through a variety of invitational and competitive exhibitions and purchase awards. For more information, call the Tarble Arts Center at 581-2787.
