FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU PLANS ANNUAL ART CONFERENCE

CHARLESTON -- For the 13th year in a row, art educators of grades kindergarten through college are invited to attend Eastern Illinois University's annual Media & Methods in Art conference, scheduled this year on Saturday, March 8.

At the request of former participants, the conference format provides for extended, hands-on workshops and sessions. Each participant will have the opportunity to select and participate in two different two-and-a-quarter-hour workshops and attend the keynote session at lunch.

This year's luncheon speaker, Jerome Hausman, will discuss "How Others See Our Media & Methods." Currently a visiting professor of art education at the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, Hausman will examine how to understand the different points of view from which teachers, administrators, and parents perceive ideas and actions.

Workshops and their presenters will include: "Using Computers in the Art
