FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Plans are being finalized for a junior college journalists' workshop to be held at Eastern Illinois University April 14-15.

Sam Seymour, journalism instructor, said the workshop is designed to aid Illinois junior college journalism students, faculty and advisers. He said all of the 70 member schools of the Illinois Community College Journalists' Association, which is sponsoring the event, have been invited to attend.

A $15 fee is required for the workshop sessions and a banquet April 14 at the Mattoon Holiday Inn, where participants will stay.

Nine 45-minute workshop sessions are scheduled, including: editorial writing ethics, computer technology, getting jobs, recruitment, business management, layout and investigative reporting.

The sessions will be taught by professional journalists from both EIU and newspapers across the state, Seymour said.
