Course Description:

This course will involve an in-depth look at the myths and culture of three Asian countries, namely, India, China, and Japan. In the Indian segment, we will read the Hindu and the Buddhist (the Hinayana or the Theravada) myths. The study of Hinduism will include (i) Vedic (Early and Later) Mythology, and (ii) the Puranic (The Mahabharata) Mythology. The Chinese segment will include the study of Confucianism, Taoism and Mahayana (or Pureland) Buddhism. Finally, the Japanese segment will focus on Zen Buddhism, Shinto and Ainu Mythologies. The primary orientation of this study will be to develop a clear understanding of (a) philosophical and religious interpretations of the concepts of creation/origin of the world, death, divinity, fate, the ultimate goal/s of human life, etc., and (b) social systems and moral/ethical values of these cultures. Whenever possible, we will also compare the commonalities and differences among these three Asian cultures and mythologies.

Discussion (participation) is an important component of this course. Your presence in class is important for everyone, but especially for you. Three unexcused absences will bring your final grade down by 1%. Three late appearances equal one unexcused absence.

Papers are due at the beginning of the class on the day they are due. For each day that the paper is late, the letter grade will fall by one full grade: an ‘A’ essay due on Friday will be an ‘F’ by next Thursday. ALWAYS MAKE COPIES AND BACK UP YOUR WORK!

Plagiarism Policy (English Department)

Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism – “The appropriation or imitation of the language, of ideas, and/or thoughts of another author and representation of them as one’s own original work” (Random House Dictionary of the English Language) – has the right and responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.
