FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Students from Urbana High School and University High School of Urbana have advanced to statewide competition in the sixth annual TEAMS (test of engineering aptitude, mathematics and science) as the result of a regional contest held March 17 at Eastern Illinois University.

Winning schools were selected among competitors in Class A and Class AA levels, based on enrollment.

The schools will compete for state and national championships at the University of Illinois on Thursday, March 29.

Finishing in order behind Urbana in Class AA were Decatur Eisenhower and Paris. The number two and three place schools following University High in Class A were Newton and Pana.

In addition, individual awards were given to students competing in six categories.
