FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL --Exhibits which depict the past, present and future of energy will be displayed at Eastern Illinois University April 10-15 in the Walkway Lounge of the University Union.

The exhibits are "The American Energy Pie," "Saving Energy In Your Home," and "Magnetic Fusion Energy." They are sponsored by the U.S. Department of Energy and Eastern's Energy Management program.

"The American Energy Pie" identifies those who have consumed the most energy in the past. Another exhibit outlines energy saving steps for homeowners.

"Magnetic Fusion Energy" is designed to clarify the complex scientific process of a new energy source.
