TASSELS SEEKS MEMBERS

Charleston, IL--"Tassels," a senior level honor society at Eastern Illinois University, is taking applications for new members.

Every year, "Tassels" receives a list of Juniors who have a grade point average of 3.5 or above and students selected from that list are invited to join the society. "Tassels" inducts 15-20 new members each year and currently has 17 members.

Applications will also be accepted from students who have not been formally invited to join and applications are available at the Honors office in Booth Library. They will be accepted until February 24.

"Tassels" president Paul Blough, a senior computer management major said, "We base our selection on a student's campus involvement, leadership qualities and academic achievement."

Blough also said that the five-year-old honor society is petitioning to become a part of the National Mortarboard. This would give Eastern Illinois University's "Tassels" national recognition.

Members of "Tassels" are involved in campus and community service projects.

Anyone interested in the program may contact Dr. Lasky, adviser to "Tassels," at 581-2018.
