FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HUGE HONORED

CHARLESTON, IL--Kristine Huge, the daughter of the late Howard Huge and Carolyn Huge of Hoyleton, has been awarded the Alexander Briggs Memorial Award at Eastern Illinois University.

The award is made annually to one or more business majors who are selected on the basis of outstanding personal character and interest in the field of business and business education.

Huge, a 1986 graduate of Nashville Community High School, is a senior at Eastern majoring in Administrative Information Systems.

She is a member of Delta Mu Delta, a national honorary business administration society; and Phi Alpha Eta, a collegiate business women's society; and a 1989 recipient of the W. C. Simmons Memorial Award.
