FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THERE'S STILL TIME TO REGISTER FOR EXPO '89

CHARLESTON, IL--Women interested in attending the Women's Expo and Health Fair and Teen Expo on the Eastern Illinois University campus Saturday, March 4, have until Monday, February 27 to pre-register for the event, according to Expo coordinator Sandy Rives.

Rives strongly encourages individuals to pre-register in order to receive their first choice of events. However, walk-ins will be accepted.

The registration fee for each division is $10 and includes materials, including a financial manual, and a meal. Child care is also available on a limited basis for four dollars.

For further information and to register, call (217) 581-5981.

Registration for the Women's Expo begins at 6:45 a.m. with the keynote session at 8:20 a.m. in the Doudna Fine Arts Center featuring Joan Blundall, an educator and consultant in tune with the needs, concerns and interests of rural women.

As a leader in the area of rural recovery and rural rebirth, she is knowledgeable about problems facing rural communities and skilled at the development of transitional programs for women of all ages.

In addition to the opening session, there will be 19 workshops for women on subjects ranging from dealing with guilt to reducing stress, a style show with fashions furnished by independent women retailers from a multi-county area and more than 90 exhibits.

Representatives from Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Center, Mattoon, will coordinate health screenings from 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the vending area located on the first floor of the EIU Student Union (East Building).

Teen Expo

Registration for the Teen Expo begins at 6:45 a.m. in the lobby of Eastern's Student Union with a keynote session at 8:25 a.m. in the Union Rathskeller.
