

9-16-2003

09/16/2003 - EIU Students Receive Family And Consumer Science Scholarships.pdf

University Marketing and Communications

Follow this and additional works at: http://thekeep.eiu.edu/press_releases_2003

Recommended Citation

University Marketing and Communications, "09/16/2003 - EIU Students Receive Family And Consumer Science Scholarships.pdf" (2003). 2003. 93.

http://thekeep.eiu.edu/press_releases_2003/93

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Press Releases at The Keep. It has been accepted for inclusion in 2003 by an authorized administrator of The Keep. For more information, please contact tabruns@eiu.edu.

03-144

September 16, 2003

For Immediate Release:

EIU STUDENTS RECEIVE FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

CHARLESTON – Several Eastern Illinois University students recently received scholarships from the family and consumer sciences program.

Recipients include:

CHARLESTON: Amy C. Myerscough Condron, wife of Tim Condron of Charleston; daughter of Jerry and Carol Myerscough of Charleston; 1996 graduate of Charleston High School; senior family and consumer sciences major. Myerscough Condron received the Ruth Miller Esbeck Scholarship which was established by Howard Esbeck in memory of Ruth Miller Esbeck. This award is given to full-time students from east central Illinois majoring in family and consumer sciences.

CHERRY VALLEY: Katie M. Barnes, daughter of Karl and Mary Barnes of Cherry Valley; 1999 graduate of Jefferson High School in Rockford; senior family and consumer sciences major. Barnes received the Donna Lynn Connelly Memorial Scholarship which was established in 1989 by the parents of Donna Lynn Connelly. This award goes to a deserving female sophomore, junior or senior in family and consumer sciences.

–more–

ADD 1/1/1/1

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES SCHOLARSHIPS

CHICAGO: Kathryn A. Hyla, daughter of Joseph and Luciana Hyla of Chicago; 1998 graduate of Lane Technical High School in Chicago; graduate student in the family and consumer sciences program. Hyla received the School of Family and Consumer Sciences Graduate Scholarship which is given to a graduate student in the family and consumer sciences program who has documented or demonstrated leadership, scholarship and service.

EDWARDSVILLE: Lynn M. Stahlhut, daughter of Warren and Karma Stahlhut of Edwardsville; 1999 graduate of Metro-East Lutheran High School in Edwardsville; senior family and consumer sciences major with an option in dietetics. Stahlhut received the Eileen F. Hubbard Award which was established in 1987 by Robert L. Hubbard and Mary Louise Hubbard. This award is presented to upper division undergraduate family and consumer sciences majors (with preference given to students enrolled in consumer science education or merchandising) who have demonstrated service, professional involvement, scholarship and leadership. The recipient must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0. Stahlhut also received the Kappa Omicron Nu Undergraduate Scholarship which recognizes and encourages excellence in scholarship, research and leadership in family and consumer sciences.

GLEN CARBON: Laura A. Keeton, daughter of Ron and Robin Keeton of Glen Carbon; 2000 graduate of Edwardsville High School; junior family and consumer sciences major. Keeton received the Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship which was established in memory of Elsie and Erson Giffin. This scholarship goes annually to outstanding students enrolled in a family and consumer sciences program.

—more—

ADD 2/2/2/2

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES SCHOLARSHIPS

GRIGGSVILLE: Amanda M. Goetze, daughter of Richard and Debbie Goetze of Griggsville; 2000 graduate of Griggsville-Perry High School; senior family and consumer sciences major with a option in dietetics. Goetze received the Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship which was established in memory of Elsie and Erson Giffin. This scholarship goes annually to outstanding students enrolled in a family and consumer sciences program.

KANSAS: Stephanie L. Shane, daughter of Don and Teri Shane of Kansas; 2001 graduate of Kansas High School; junior family and consumer sciences major. Shane received the Joyce S. Crouse Scholarship which was established in 2000 to provide an award for a full-time student issued in a three-year cycle. The first and second year, the recipient must be enrolled in family and consumer sciences. The third year, the student must be enrolled in the gerontology program. If there is no suitable candidate in gerontology, then other family and consumer sciences candidates may be considered.

MAPLE PARK: Stephanie A. Nelson, daughter of Forrest and Ellen Nelson of Maple Park; 1998 graduate of Kaneland High School in Maple Park; senior family and consumer sciences major. Nelson received the Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship which was established in memory of Elsie and Erson Giffin. This scholarship goes annually to outstanding students enrolled in a family and consumer sciences program.

MT. PULASKI: Jessica D. Bishop, daughter of John and Julie Bishop of Mt. Pulaski; 1999 graduate of Mt. Pulaski High School; senior family and consumer sciences major. Bishop received the Ruth Miller Esbeck Scholarship which was established by Howard

ADD 3/3/3/3

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES SCHOLARSHIPS

Esbeck in memory of Ruth Miller Esbeck. This award is given to full-time students from east central Illinois majoring in family and consumer sciences.

MARINETTE, WIS.: Lisa M. Kasten, daughter of Kenneth and Joann Kasten of Marinette, Wis.; 1998 graduate of Michigan Lutheran High School in St. Joseph, Mich.; graduate student in the family and consumer sciences program. Kasten received the McNabb-Dow Graduate Scholarship which is given to an outstanding graduate student in the family and consumer sciences program.

ROSELLE: Courtney A. Gatsos, daughter of John and Sandra Gatsos of Roselle; 2000 graduate of Lake Park High School; junior career and technical education major. Gatsos received the Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship which was established in memory of Elsie and Erson Giffin. This scholarship goes annually to outstanding students enrolled in a family and consumer sciences program.

SPRINGFIELD: Christina M. Adams, daughter of Joseph and Mary Ann Adams of Springfield; 1999 graduate of Ursuline Academy in Springfield; senior family and consumer sciences major. Adams received the John E. and Mary J. Price Scholarship which was established in 1993 by Margaret J. Weber and Gary E. Price. This award goes to a sophomore, junior or senior majoring in speech communication or family and consumer sciences with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher. Recipients must be Illinois residents.

SULLIVAN: Beth E. Sanner, daughter of Stan and Ann Sanner of Sullivan; 2001 graduate of Sullivan High School; junior career and technical education major. Sanner received the Ruth Miller Esbeck Scholarship which was established by Howard Esbeck in memory of Ruth Miller Esbeck. This award is given to full-time students from east central Illinois majoring in family and consumer sciences.

—more—

ADD 4/4/4/4

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES SCHOLARSHIPS

WEST CHICAGO: Carly D. Gustafson, daughter of Sandra Gustafson and granddaughter of Belton Gustafson, both of West Chicago; 1998 graduate of Aurora West High School; graduate student in the family and consumer sciences program. Gustafson received the McNabb-Dow Graduate Scholarship which is given to an outstanding graduate student in the family and consumer sciences program.