CHARLESTON -- Klaus Hansen, chair and professor in the Department of American Studies at the University of Passau, Germany, will visit Eastern Illinois University on Wednesday, April 10, to present a public lecture.

His talk, "The American Tycoon: A German Perspective," will focus on how the Germans perceive American chief executive officers and how they see themselves. He will speak at 7:30 p.m. in Lumpkin Auditorium, 017.

The presentation will allow participants to have a personal dialogue with a German expert on American affairs.
