F. ASSIGNMENTS

I. Informative Paper

Literary Autobiography Piktochart Assignment

Create a Piktochart that outlines your development as a reader and a writer.

Make sure to include key people, texts, and experiences that have shaped your experiences. This could be in the form of a time-line, such as the Elon Musk example, or another infographic design of your choice.

Use <https://piktochart.com/> to create your infographic (you will need to create a free account) or another infographic-creation tool of your choosing if you know of one.

II. Visual Analysis Paper

Goals:

- Students will develop strategies for close, careful, and critical reading of visual texts.
- Students will learn how to write the first paragraph of a visual critique.
- Students will practice writing in narrative format (present-tense; simple sentence structure).
- Students will learn to write non-interpretative descriptions of artwork (i.e., keeping an objective tone).
- Students will have the opportunity to revisit the idea of finding concrete details.

III. Rhetorical Analysis Paper

Produce a 2-paragraph RA on the documentary film of your choice making sure to focus very clearly and purposefully on the effects/purpose and not on the rhetorical strategies themselves.

IV. Evaluative Paper

Write a 200-word "yelp"-style review of your own making sure to address each criterion you established.

V. Persuasive Paper

Using the first three paragraphs of the Nicholas Carr essay entitled "Is Google Making Us Stupid?," produce an imitation of his style, using your own ideas. Look for a variety of sources and types of evidence to support your viewpoint. Look at how Carr used a variety of evidence and use his writing as an example. YOU NEED TO USE 2 EXTERNAL SOURCES to support your argument.

VI. Portfolio Reflection

G. STUDENT EVALUATION AND GRADING

Students who enroll in this dual credit course will receive a grade on both a High School District 214 and Eastern transcript. Policies related to these grades are outlined below.

Course grades will be determined according to the following categories:

Category	Percentage OR Points
Classwork/Homework	Total points
Written Assignments
Participation
Final Reflection

The course will use the following grading scale:

- A = 90-100%
- B = 80-89%
- C = 70-79%
- D = 60-69%
- F = 0-59%

Missed or late exams, quizzes, and assignments [High School District 214 Board Policy 6:290 AP]

A student, whose absence is authorized, unauthorized, or an excused absence will be permitted to make up the work missed. Credit given for such work will be appropriate to the nature of the work missed and to the quality of the make-up work. The teacher will establish reasonable time limits for its completion.

Discussion, Collaborative Activities, Peer Review

DUAL CREDIT FINANCIAL AID IMPLICATION

Students whose dual credit grades fall below a "C" or receive a "W" could be in danger of impacting their future Financial Aid eligibility as dual credit grades affect college GPA and calculation of completed/non-completed courses.

H. COURSE WITHDRAWAL INFORMATION

J. STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES AND ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS (High School District 214 Board Policy 6:120)

Eastern Illinois University - High School District 214
ENG 1001G Composition and Language
Dual Credit - 3 semester hours - Spring 2019

The District shall provide a free appropriate public education in the least restrictive environment and necessary related services to all children with disabilities enrolled in the District, as required by the Individuals With Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and implementing provisions of the School Code, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans With Disabilities Act. The term "children with disabilities," as used in this policy, means children between ages 3 and 21 (inclusive) for whom it is determined, through definitions and procedures described in the Illinois State Board of Education's Special Education rules, that special education services are needed. It is the intent of the District to ensure that students who are disabled within the definition of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 are identified, evaluated, and provided with appropriate educational services. Students may be disabled within the meaning of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act even though they do not require services pursuant to the IDEA.

For students eligible for services under IDEA, the District shall follow procedures for identification, evaluation, placement, and delivery of services to children with disabilities provided in the Illinois State Board of Education's Special Education rules. For those students who are not eligible for services under IDEA, but, because of disability as defined by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, need or are believed to need special instruction or related services, the District shall establish and implement a system of procedural safeguards. The safeguards shall cover students' identification, evaluation, and educational placement. This system shall include notice, an opportunity for the student's parent(s)/guardian(s) to examine relevant records, an impartial hearing with opportunity for participation by the student's parent(s)/guardian(s), and representation by counsel, and a review procedure.

The District may maintain membership in one or more cooperative associations of school districts that shall assist the School District in fulfilling its obligations to the District's disabled students.
