FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Dr. Josef Enzweiler, Consul General of the Federal Republic of Germany, will speak on "Forty Years of German-American Relations" at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 18 in the Eastern Illinois University Booth Library Lecture Hall.

The lecture is open to the public, and will be followed by a question-answer period. There is no admission.

Enzweiler is also scheduled to address the Charleston Rotary Club earlier that day, and then meet with the East Central Illinois Development Center on Wednesday morning.

He has served in the West German foreign service in Zurich, The Hague, Nigeria and Pakistan. For six years he directed the Section for Technical Cooperation with Developing Countries in the Bonn Foreign Office.

Enzweiler was appointed to his current position in Chicago last year.
