REVIEWING THE WEEKEND (Oct. 11-12)

- FOOTBALL: The Panthers won their third straight, 40-15, over Central State as defensive plays led to four of the six EIU touchdowns. EIU, now 4-2 and ranked No. 8 in the NCAA II poll, begins a stretch of four straight conference games.
- SOCCER: Coach Schellas Hyndman's crew, idle over the weekend, will get back into action Wednesday evening at nationally ranked Indiana. The Panthers, 7-2, knocked the No. 14 ranked Evansville Aces, 3-2, in double overtime last week. Freshman Damien Kelly (Dublin, Ireland) leads with eight goals and two assists. Gordie Weidle (Edmonton, Canada) has five goals, three assists.
- MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY: Resting most of its front line people, the Panthers easily won the Miner Invitational at Rolla, Missouri. EIU had 26 points to out-distance the hosts, Missouri-Rolla, 74, and Northeast Missouri with 75. Mike Beresford (Danville) was second in 25:25 minutes, Dave Houston (Granite City-South) was third in 25:32, Terry Donahue (Downers Grove-Montini), fourth in 25:37 and Jim Scruton (Springfield-Lincoln Land CC), sixth in 25:54.
- FIELD HOCKEY: Eastern won two of three games over the weekend, downing Northeast Missouri, 5-0, and Iowa's junior varisty, 3-0. Donna Macios (Granite City-South) scored three goals while teammate Nancy Scappa (Batavia, NY) had two. The loss, 1-0 at Northwestern Saturday, leaves EIU with a 5-8-1 record.
- VOLLEYBALL: Eastern was third at the Michigan State Invitational. EIU defeated Wisconsin-Parkside and Western Ontario but lost to York College of Canada twice.
