FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University President Daniel E. Marvin, Jr., will be the featured speaker at a meeting of public school principals and teachers who cooperate in the University's student teaching program.

The annual dinner meeting will be on Monday, April 19 at 6 p.m. in the University Union. More than 200 persons are expected to attend.

Following the dinner, teachers and principals will meet with student teaching coordinators and academic department heads "to provide an opportunity for mutual consultations and discussions for improvement of the program."

Cooperating teachers accept Eastern students in their classrooms for up to a full semester. They supervise their teaching, indoctrinate them into the profession, and evaluate their performance.

Eastern annually assigns students to approximately 250 towns and cities within an 80 mile radius of the campus, and to the Chicago area.

Dr. Francis Summers is Director of Student Teaching. Dr. Richard White is conference chairman.
