FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--The Chicago Ensemble will present a concert at Eastern Illinois University on Sunday, April 8 at 3 p.m. in the Tarble Arts Center.

The program will include works for various combinations for soprano, flute, violin, cello and piano, and will run the gamut from Handel and Mozart arias to folk songs and spirituals, from a piano trio by Mendelssohn to works by Villa-Lobos, Chausson and a work by contemporary composer Robert Muczynski.

Howard Reich reported in the Chicago Tribune that "as the Chicago Ensemble now stands, it is an unusually sensitive group that not only takes great pains to listen to the sounds it produces, but also polishes its interpretations to a high degree."

Admission is $2 for the general public and $1 for students.
