EIU POLICE INVESTIGATING REPORT OF AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

CHARLESTON – University Police are continuing their investigation into an alleged incidence of aggravated assault occurring in a women's restroom in Eastern Illinois University's Booth Library.

A female student reported entering a first-floor restroom at approximately 7:05 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 23, 2003, and discovering a white male in his late teens/early twenties holding a pocket knife. The subject approached the female student, then fled the scene. The female student was not physically injured.

The subject was described as approximately six feet, two inches tall, with short blond hair and black metal frame glasses. He was wearing a white t-shirt with a blue logo, blue jeans and a blue baseball cap turned backwards.

Anyone with information about this incident should contact University Police at 581-3212 or 581-3213.
