CURRICULUM COMMITTEE MEETING
May 3, 2004

The LCBAS Curriculum Committee held an electronic meeting on May 3, 2004 to vote on several proposals.

INT 4953 – NEW COURSE PROPOSAL

The new course proposal for INT 4953, Color Management Applications: Print, Textiles, Web, and Other Substrates, (2-2-3), effective Spring 2005, was approved.

The addition of INT 4953 to the list of courses from which INT majors with a concentration in Digital Printing, Imaging, and Web Technology, must choose 15 hrs., was also approved.

FCS 3794 – NEW COURSE PROPOSAL

The new course proposal for FCS 3794, Commercial Quantity Food Production, (1-8-5), effective Fall 2005, was approved.

The addition of FCS 3794 as a requirement in the FCS in Business Option, Hospitality Management concentration, in place of FCS 2140, was also approved.

REVISION IN M.A. IN GERONTOLOGY PROGRAM

The proposal to delete SOC 4800, Sociological Aspects of Gerontology, from the core course offerings in the M.A. in Gerontology program, effective Spring 2005, was approved. This reduces the number of required hours in the program from 18-19 to 15-16 and increases the number of electives from 12-14 to 15-17.

REVISION IN FCS IN BUSINESS OPTION, MERCHANDISING CONCENTRATION

Sean Dilworth forwarded a proposal, effective Spring 2005, requesting that INT 4953, Color Management Applications: Print, Textiles, Web, and Other Substrates, be added to the list of courses from which FCS in Business, Merchandising concentration students, must choose 12 hrs. T. Waskom (Snyder) moved to vote on this proposal at an electronic meeting to be held May 10.
