FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--A noted mathematician will discuss "Games and Decisions," with application to coaching strategies, in one of two lectures at Eastern Illinois University on Tuesday, April 19.

Dr. Maynard Thompson, Indiana University, will speak on that topic at 3 p.m. in Room 215 Old Main. At 1 p.m. in Room 217, Thompson will lecture on "Some Mathematical Models of Information Diffusion." Both lectures are open to the public.

Thompson is a former delegate to the Bi-National Conference on Mathematics in India and in 1978 was a senior research mathematician at General Motors Research Laboratories. He has taught at Indiana since 1962.

He belongs to a number of professional societies and is the co-author of an undergraduate textbook.
