CLAXON NAMED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

CHARLESTON, IL--Carol Claxon of Mattoon has been named Eastern Illinois University's "Employee of the Month."

A clerical worker in Eastern's physics department since 1989, Claxon was selected from more than 800 Eastern civil service employees by the university's Civil Service Employee Recognition Committee.

She provides clerical support to 13 physics faculty members and supervises student employees.

As to her selection, Claxon said, "I was surprised, but I felt very honored, not only for the award but for the recommendations made by the faculty."

CLAXON EOM

Doug Davis, physics department chairman, said, "Carol does a tremendous job taking care of the day to day things. She does more than any secretary we've ever had and completes her tasks in a cheerful and efficient manner."

She and her husband, Roger, DARE (Drug Abuse and Resistance Education) instructor for the Mattoon Police Department, have two children, Todd, 21, and Erin, 15.

Claxon is a member of the Mattoon Christian Church.
