FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Fifty high schools, represented by 157 musicians, will participate in the sixth annual honor high school band concert at Eastern Illinois University on Friday, May 7 at 7:30 p.m. in Dvorak Concert Hall.

Eastern's Symphonic Winds Ensemble will share the stage with the high school band. Harold L. Hillyer directs the Ensemble and organizes the annual high school presentation.

Members of this year's band were chosen from 400 students recommended by high school band directors. The final list was selected by Hillyer.

The band will be directed by Col. Arnard D. Gabriel, Commander and Conductor of the U.S. Air Force Band in Washington. The group will rehearse all day preparing four selections for the concert: Emblem of Unity Concert March, America, the Beautiful, Russian Sailors' Dance and La Belle Helene.

Gabriel will also guest conduct one selection played by the Wind Ensemble, and will conduct a clinic for the high school band directors.

The first honor band included 17 schools and 75 musicians.
