FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Marty Pattin, a member of the pitching staff of the American League champion Kansas City Royals and graduate of Eastern Illinois University, will be honored by his alma mater at Saturday's (Nov. 15) football game.

Pattin, a 14 year veteran of the major leagues, will be cited for his accomplishments by EIU President Daniel E. Marvin, Jr., and Athletic Director R. C. Johnson at halftime of the Panthers-Augustana contest.

"Marty has contributed to the Royals' success over the past two years, and we'd like to publicly acknowledge that Eastern is proud of his personal and professional record," said Johnson.

CHARLESTON, IL--It will be Family Day again at O'Brien Stadium, Saturday (Nov. 15).

Eastern Illinois University Athletic Director R. C. Johnson announced that any high school age and under person will be admitted free to the EIU-Augustana game providing he or she is accompanied by a paying adult.

In addition, Johnson said several area high school football teams have been invited to this game as guests of the University.
