FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Dr. Barbara Owens, Dean of the School of Home Economics at Eastern Illinois University, is the President-elect of the Illinois Home Economics Association.

She will serve in that capacity during the 1983-84 academic year and will be the organization's president in 1984-85. Following that, Dr. Owens will be counselor for three years.

The IHEA is affiliated with the American Home Economics Association, one of the largest national professional associations in the U.S. Membership in the national group exceeds 35,000.

Dr. Owens currently serves on the AHEA Undergraduate Commission Council, and has represented Illinois as a delegate to the AHEA annual meeting.

Dr. Owens is a past president and counselor of IHEA, and a member of a number of the group's committees.
