FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EASTERN STUDENTS NAMED TO WHO'S WHO

CHARLESTON, IL-Thirty-four Eastern Illinois University students have been named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

They will join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,400 institutions worldwide who will be listed in the 1991 edition of Who's Who, a national reference source used by college and public libraries, businesses, governmental agencies and students alike.

Who's Who is one of the most highly regarded and long-standing honor programs in the nation, having earned the respect of college faculties and administrators.

WHO'S WHO

The students were selected by a committee composed of Eastern faculty, student leaders and administrators and chaired by the Director of Student Activities.

Academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success are among the selection criteria. Upperclassmen and graduate students are eligible for nomination.

Each Who's Who honoree will receive a certificate and lifetime use of a reference/placement service.
