Required Textbooks

Van Gelderen, An Introduction to the Grammar of English, revised edition (VG below)

Rickerson and Hilton (eds.), The 5-Minute Linguist, 2nd edition (5ML below)

Course Description

In Structure of English, we will closely examine the English language at the level of syntax—that is, how and why sentences are put together the way they are. In doing so, we will seek to better understand how English is constructed as a language. We will examine the so-called “rules” of grammar, but we will also think about why these rules exist, where they come from, and what it means when we don’t follow these rules in either written or oral expression.

Learning Objectives

In this course, you will learn to:

- Employ concepts and technical terms related to grammar and linguistics
- Learn how to recognize various parts of speech, determine their function in a sentence, and represent them in diagramming
- Think about the relationship between the rules of grammar and everyday usage
- Be better able to make language choices in their own speech and writing based on style, form, purpose, and audience and/or to improve your ability to teach oral or written English

Course Requirements and Grade Distribution and Scale

1. Attendance and participation (15%)

Attendance is required for the course, and you should plan to attend every class meeting unless you are significantly ill and/or contagious and/or some other emergency comes up. Make-up privileges will be granted only for excused absences as defined by the University. Please read carefully the relevant passage from the Undergraduate Catalog: "Instructors will grant make-up privileges (when make-up is possible) to students for properly verified absences due to illness, emergency, or participation in an official University activity; and such absences will not militate against students in classes in which attendance is used directly in determining final grades. It is the student's responsibility to initiate plans for make-up work and to complete it promptly." If you have a planned unexcused absence (like those for weddings, out-of-town doctor appointments, court dates, etc.) on the date of a test, please contact me in order to take the test in advance.

You are allowed a total of 3 unexcused absences before your grade will be affected. After your third unexcused absence, your participation grade will go down by 1 point per each additional absence. I also reserve the right to withhold extra credit opportunities from students who have over 4 absences.

Your participation grade will be based not just on class attendance. To receive credit for participating, you actually have to participate in the course. This means taking part in the daily activities and discussions of the course, asking questions when you have them, putting away all electronics and other distractions during class, and otherwise being actively present in the classroom during class time.

2. Homework (10%)

There will be regularly assigned homework each week. Homework assignments will be posted in D2L and will be turned in via D2L Dropbox.

3. Practice quizzes (5%)

You will be given the opportunity to test your mastery of course material through weekly practice quizzes. These quizzes will be given via D2L.

4. Exams (40%)

There will be three exams in this class during the course of the semester in addition to a cumulative final exam. You will be given a practice exam via D2L and there will be an exam review day for each exam.

5. Group Presentation (10%)

In groups, you will research a language “myth” or controversy. You will turn in a group report on your findings and present what you have learned to the class.

6. Final Project and Presentation (20%)

You will choose a topic related to language that is of interest to you and/or is relevant to your future career plans to investigate. More information on this project will become available later in the semester.

Grading Scale

A	90-100
B	80-89.9
C	70-79.9
D	60-69.9
F	Below 60

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain principles of academic integrity and conduct as defined in EIU's Code of Conduct (<http://www.eiu.edu/judicial/studentconductcode.php>). Violations will be reported to the Office of Student Standards.

Plagiarism unequivocally will not be tolerated in this course. Plagiarism is defined as "The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's own original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language). The English Department's policy on plagiarism states that any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism has the right and responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignments of a grade of F for the assigned essay and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Office of Student Standards. Respect for the work of others should encompass all formats, including print, electronic, and oral sources.

Student Resources

Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Office of Disability Services (581 -6583) as soon as possible.

The Student Success Center and The Writing Center

Students who are having difficulty achieving their academic goals are encouraged to contact the Student Success Center (<http://www.eiu.edu/-success>) for assistance with time management, test taking, note taking, avoiding procrastination, setting goals, and other skills to support academic achievement. The Student Success Center provides individualized consultations. To make an appointment, call 217-581 -6696, or go to 9th Street Hall, Room 1302.

The Writing Center: Students who would like assistance with writing assignments from this or any other course may go to the Writing Center. The Writing Center works with students from all disciplines, majors, and academic backgrounds at any stage of the writing process. To make an appointment, call (217) 581-5929, or go to Coleman Hall, Room 3110.

Hungry?

Note that there is a student lounge on the West side of Coleman Hall. There is a refrigerator and shelf with food that the English department provides for students who are in need of a snack. We ask that you treat this lounge with respect, but please do feel free to visit and have a bite to eat as needed.

English Teacher Education Majors

Students seeking Teacher Certification in English Language Arts should provide each of their English Department professors with a copy of the yellow form called "Application for English Department Approval to Student Teach" before the end of the semester. These forms are available in a rack outside the office of Dr. Melissa Ames (3821 Coleman Hall).

Tentative Course Schedule***
