FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STUDENTS RECEIVE HOME ECONOMICS SCHOLARSHIPS

CHARLESTON, IL--Three Charleston residents are the recipients of home economics scholarships at Eastern Illinois University. They are Erin Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Elliott; Nichele Kamerer; and Paul Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder.

Elliott, a 1989 graduate of Charleston High School, received an Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship. She is a junior home economics major and a student member of the Council on Academic Affairs and Dean's Advisory Council in the College of Applied Sciences. She also belongs to Phi Alpha Eta women's academic honorary.

HOME ECONOMICS SCHOLARSHIPS

Snyder, a 1988 graduate of Charleston High School, also received an Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship. He is a senior home economics major and a President's Council Representative for the Student Home Economics Association, president of Sigma Pi fraternity, and scholarship chairman for the Interfraternity Council.

Established in memory of Elsie and Erson Giffin, the scholarship is administered through the School of Home Economics. It goes annually to outstanding students enrolled in a home economics program.

Kamerer, a 1983 graduate of Crete-Monee High School in Crete, is the recipient of a Sue Walton award. She is a junior home economics major.

The award was established by Sue Walton of Palatine, a retired high school teacher, whose intent was to assist a single mother in pursuit of her undergraduate degree in home economics.
