FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL --Thomas Borris, a student at Eastern Illinois University from Elmwood Park, is the 1981 recipient of the Ann Frommel Award. Congratulating him is Dr. Leonard Durham, Director of the Division of Life Sciences. Established in memory of the late Ann Frommel, student at Eastern, the scholarship goes each year to an outstanding student in botany, zoology or chemistry. It carries a certificate and a cash stipend.

In addition, Mr. Borris was one of two persons who received the Achievement Award at Eastern. The award goes each year to one or more outstanding students who have attained at least sophomore standing. It carries a cash stipend.
