Baccalaureate Service to Be Held Sunday Night; Commencement Exercises Next Wednesday Night

A class of ninety-nine young people, the second largest in the history of the school, is completing four years of work at the Newton Community high school, M. B. Platz, principal, stated Thursday. All seniors were excused at the close of work, Thursday evening, but a few were requested to return Monday and Tuesday for special work in certain subjects they were deficient in.

The annual senior play will be present tonight, the baccalaureate service will be held at the high school auditorium Sunday night, and the annual commencement exercises Wednesday night.

The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Lewis W. Williams of Urbana, director of the placement bureau of the University of Illinois and former principal of the University high school. He is a splendid speaker and will have a message of special interest to young people at this time.
