CHARLESTON, IL.--JUNE KRUTZA and JOHN DAVID REED have been chosen as recipients of Eastern Illinois University's Distinguished Faculty Awards.

DR. KRUTZA is a professor of art, and has been a member of the EIU faculty since 1952. She earned her doctorate at Ohio State University.

DR. REED has been an EIU staff member since 1972 and journalism department chair for the past two years. He earned his doctorate from Southern Illinois University.

KRUTZA and REED will be cited for their achievements at EIU's spring commencement ceremonies on Saturday, May 9. Both will share a $500 stipend provided by the EIU Foundation.

A Faculty Senate committee chose these two from a list of nominees. Bill Heyduck, committee chair, said, "Every year that I have been on this committee, the choice is difficult because of the high quality of nominees.

"This award is significant because these people have been rated highly in the three areas of teaching, research and creativity, and service. The university is fortunate to have people of such high quality."
