FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TEACHERS COLLEGE/EASTERN STATE HIGH SCHOOL REUNION PLANNED

CHARLESTON -- Time is running out for those wishing to register for the second All-School Teachers College/Eastern State High School Reunion, scheduled to take place June 5 and 6.

In 1995, approximately 150 TC/ESHS alumni met on Eastern Illinois University's campus for the first all-school reunion. The event was deemed so successful that the consensus was to hold reunions every three years.

This year's activities will begin Friday, June 5, with an informal evening dinner. Saturday's offerings will include decade (1920s, 1930s, 1940s and 1950s) mini-reunions, decade photographs and a reunion luncheon banquet.

In addition, attendees will be given the opportunity to view a slide presentation compiled by Hiram Thut, a former professor of botany at Eastern, and representing a photographic account of Eastern's history.

Following the slide show, current Eastern students will guide reunion participants through campus buildings and grounds, telling them about new facilities and construction projects currently underway.

Those interested in attending this reunion should contact the Alumni Services Office at Eastern, 581-6616 or 1-800-ALUM-EIU, for information. Reservations should be made as soon as possible.
