FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

INITIATED INTO PI KAPPA ALPHA

CHARLESTON, IL--Twenty-three students have recently been initiated into Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity at Eastern Illinois University.

Pi Kappa Alpha is one of the nation's oldest and largest social fraternities. Eastern's Zeta Gamma Chapter was founded in 1964 and now has a membership of over ninety men.

The new initiates were recognized for their leadership, individual contributions to the university, their efforts toward the achievement of top chapter among fraternities scholastically, their participation in intramural activities, and their record of service to the community.
