FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BOCK PRESENTS PAPER AT CONFERENCE

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University student Courtney Bock, daughter of Richard and Roxanne Shelton of Clinton, was recently selected by Eastern's Honors Programs faculty to present a paper at the Annual Conference of the Honors Council of the Illinois Region held at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb.

Bock's paper was titled, "AIDS and How It Affects Teenagers."

A 1994 graduate of Clinton High School, Bock is a member of Eastern's Honors Programs.

Eastern offers talented students the opportunity to participate in two honors programs: University Honors, a lower-division program; and Departmental Honors, an upper-division program.

Both programs offer students of superior academic ability a unique opportunity to develop their potential for intellectual achievement.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.
