Other:

1. February 24, 2006 memorandum from Ms. Brenda Major, Director of Admissions, regarding changes to the admission requirements of graduates of non-accredited or non-recognized high schools.
The council reviewed the changes from Ms. Major to the admission requirements of graduates of non-accredited or non-recognized High Schools. Dr. Herrington-Perry explained that the changes were a result of a state mandate. In addition to Ms. Major's changes, the council requested that "or SAT" be added to the sentence about the waiver of the GED requirement for home schooled students.

The following catalog changes will be incorporated into the Undergraduate Catalog (located on page 44 of the 2005-06 Undergraduate Catalog).

Graduates of high schools which are neither regionally accredited nor recognized may not be considered for admission unless they have passed the General Education Development (GED) Test and obtained a High School Equivalency Certificate, or have scored within the University's accepted range on the ACT or SAT. For students who have been home schooled and do not present a recognized diploma, the GED requirement may be waived with an acceptable ACT or SAT score as determined by the Office of Admissions. Home-schooled students must also submit a transcript of all courses completed with grades listed for each class.
