CHARLESTON, IL--Two members of San Antonio (Texas) College faculty were at Eastern Illinois University recently to study the American Business Network (BizNet) airing over Liberty Cable in Charleston. The visitors were Tiana Spivey, an instructor, and Bruce Davis, Director of Television Learning Resources, at the College.

BizNet is broadcast weekdays by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce from Washington, D.C. In cooperation with the Radio and Television Center at Eastern it is available on Channel 12, Premium 1.

Eastern was the third educational institution in the nation to subscribe, according to Dr. Terry Maris, Assistant Dean of the College of Business. Programs include business news, small business reports, legislative updates, and other business topics.

During their visit, Ms. Spivey and Davis spoke with several members of the Charleston business community and Eastern faculty and staff. Maris said San Antonio College was considering purchase of a BizNet subscription.
