FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL.--Summer School 1987 at Eastern Illinois University will offer a number of programs for special groups of students. Credit offerings, in addition to regular catalog offerings for continuing students, will include special courses and workshops for non-traditional students.

Special programming will also include non-credit activities for persons in music, science, speech, journalism; sports and cheerleading camps; the "Summer of Excellence" program for young people; and the ELDERHOSTEL program for older adults.

Registration for the concurrent five-week session (June 15-July 23) and eight-week session (June 15-Aug. 13) is June 15.

Summer 1987 will continue an evening college with 16 offerings, graduate and undergraduate, designed to meet the needs of various groups who work during the day. Included are a number of courses from the College of Business and several that meet distribution requirements in general education.

Eastern will continue the guest student policy in the summer. This policy allows non-degree students who wish to enroll in summer school to do so without submitting official transcripts for admission. The policy is designed for undergraduate and graduate students who have not previously attended Eastern and do not intend to pursue a degree at Eastern.

Once again mail-in registration for workshops only will be available. The program enables students, upon admission or readmission to the University, to request registration materials so that they can register for workshops by mail.

The Summer 1987 program will be based on a four-day week and other special features include the possibility of 15 semester hours of credit and flexibility in scheduling with four-week, five-week, and eight-week courses as well as workshops for one, two, or three weekends or weeks.
