FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ANSELMENT SELECTED PRESIDENT OF ISRAA

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University student Jason Anselment, son of Edward and Cathy Anselment of Dahlgren, has been selected as president of the Illinois State Resident Assistant Association (ISRAA).

Anselment was selected by representatives from each of the association's member universities at their annual conference held at the University of Illinois at Chicago in February. He will serve as president starting in Fall 1995.

The ISRAA originated in 1984 and was created for the purpose of bettering residence life in Illinois by creating an organization for resident assistants.

Some of the responsibilities that Anselment will have as president include providing direction for the Executive Board and serving as the official spokesman of the ISRAA.

Anselment, a 1993 graduate of McLeansboro High School, is a sophomore at Eastern majoring in management and social science.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a
