FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--A Rock-A-Like airband contest Monday night at E.L. Krackers is the final fundraising event in Eastern Illinois University's month long campus-wide campaign to Bust MS on behalf of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The Rock-A-Like contest will feature six EIU students who will impersonate nationally known rock stars, both in appearance and musical style, by lip syncing their music.

The competition will begin at approximately 11 p.m., according to Angelynn Richardson, Eastern coordinator for the fund drive.

"The Bust MS drive is receiving a share of the cover charge from E.L. Krackers plus we'll be selling some MS items to raise money. Miller Brewing Company is also helping with the fund raising effort."

EIU is one of 140 universities across the nation participating in the MS campaign. The school that raises the most money will receive a free concert by the Music Television (MTV) cable system.

Winners of Monday's Rock-A-Like will advance to regional competition and possibly onto the national level.

The six EIU students are Dave Dudley of Carman Hall impersonating George Michael of WHAM, Jeanie Doran of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority imitating Olivia Newton-John, Debbie Dalton of Sigma Kappa sorority as Whitney Houston, Cathy Gravitt of Delta Zeta sorority as Michael Jackson, Bill Mulvaney of Sigma Pi as Billy Crystal and Marty Payne of Lambda Chi fraternity as Frankie Goes to Hollywood.
